

Proclamation

Administrative Professionals Day April 27, 2022

WHEREAS: The International Association of Administrative Professionals (IAAP) – Administrative Professionals Day; and

WHEREAS: 2022 marks the 70th anniversary of Administrative Professionals Day. This day of recognition has gone through many updates over the years to reflect the changing administrative titles and responsibilities in the modern workforce. The purpose of AP Day remains the same, to celebrate the many contributions of devoted and valued administrative professionals; and

WHEREAS: A variety of IAAP activities in celebration of Administrative Professionals Day are scheduled across Canada and the United States, including remote and in-person educational and networking events; and

WHEREAS: These professionals go above and beyond their job descriptions to ensure their teams function efficiently. During the COVID-19 pandemic they were the glue that held most offices together as workplaces were forced to perform remotely, and Administrative Professionals were tasked with ensuring the transition ran smoothly; and THEREFORE: I, Mayor Danny Breen, do hereby proclaim that Administrative Professionals Day, April 27, 2022, is a special occasion celebrating the roles that these professionals fill in all manner of businesses and industries.
